

“SAINT HILDEGARD SPEAKS”

SEPTEMBER 6-17 • 2020

“A VIRTUAL PILGRIMAGE”

For twelve days online, you are invited to experience contemplative spiritual direction from an American follower of Hildegard, see new videos that are elegant and divinely inspired from “Saint Hildegard Speaks” stations along the Hildegard Way in Germany, and engage with academic and theological short talks on themes in Hildegard’s life.

- The entire series will be presented on Zoom .

This special ecumenical online pilgrimage has been created by pilgrim-filmmaker Michael M. Conti, who took the 85 mile “Hildegard Way” through the Nahe river region in Rhineland-Palatinate in Germany. It was an inspiration from Dr. Annette Esser, the German founder of Scivias Institute for Art and Spirituality. Dr. Esser speaks in character as “Hildegard” at 10 stations along the trail and gives a small glimpse into the many teachings of Saint Hildegard. The virtual pilgrimage will conclude on Saint Hildegard’s Feast Day on Sept 17 with Matthew Fox.

After each video, an inspiring short talk on aspects of Hildegard’s work will be given by international Hildegard scholars and theologians, curated by Dr. Beverly Kienzle, recently retired from Harvard Divinity School. The Revd Dr. Shanon Sterringer will open each day at Noon EDT with a ringing of the church bells from the Hildegard Haus, providing spiritual direction and insight for that day.
